Want to earn €250?

The Amsterdam Institute for Advanced Labour Studies (AIAS) of the University of Amsterdam is looking for ISHSS students to help us out with our research. We would like to interview foreign students about the labour market in their home countries, and also help us to produce an online survey questionnaire about labour market issues which is suitable for local use. This will probably be around 2 days work, which we're happy for you to fit around your studies and complete at a time convenient to you.
